

ANN ARBOR SOCIETY FOR MUSICAL ARTS

&

KING'S KEYBOARD HOUSE

Announce the
2018 ROSALIE EDWARDS YOUTH
MUSIC COMPETITION

open to all middle-school and high-school musicians (instrumentalists and vocalists) ages 13-18 residing in Washtenaw County

PRIZES:

FIRST PRIZE: $200 (co-sponsored by King's Keyboard House & Ann Arbor Society for Musical Arts)

SECOND PRIZE: $100 (sponsored by Society for Musical Arts)

THIRD PRIZE: $75 (sponsored by Society for Musical Arts)

Winner(s) will perform in the Society for Musical Arts Spring Concert Series at the Ann Arbor City Club
Wednesday, March 21st 2018 10:30 a.m.

Preliminary Round: Deliver your recorded audition recording (maximum 8 minutes) by Friday, February 2nd at 6pm to Jim King:

King's Keyboard House 2623 E. Stadium Blvd., Ann Arbor, MI 48104

Please include at 3x5 card with competitor's name, age, address, phone number, email, name of school, private teacher, and the name and contact information of parent/guardian.

A non-refundable audition fee of $15 must be paid by check, made payable to SMA.

Students choose their own repertoire and must include the composer and title of their piece(s).

Recordings MUST be an mp3, mp4, or wav file.

IF SELECTED, YOU MUST AGREE TO PERFORM AT THE WINNER'S RECITAL ON MARCH 21ST.

Final Round: Selected finalists will give a live performance on:

Sunday, February 11th, 3-6pm

Trinity Lutheran Church, 1400 W. Stadium Blvd.

Performers are responsible for providing their own accompanist. Judges may determine that the March 21st concert will showcase two or more prize winners. Prizes will be awarded at the winner's recital.

Please contact Penny Fischer at fischer709@comcast.net or Rebecca Yaciuk at reyaciuk@gmail.com with any questions. Information about the REYMC is also available at annarborsma.org